

Values Led Education

Why do it at all?

- Encourage all of us, to be the best that we can be.
- Provide a moral framework.
- Encourage reflective and ethical thinking.
- Help us to better understand and articulate the impact our behaviour can have on our friends, our school, our community.
- Encourage our community to develop and establish strong positive values on which to build lives.
- Strengthen our sense of belonging.
- Promote the giving and receiving of support and develop within us empathy towards all.

What can Values Led Education provide?

- self-confidence.
- It provides a moral framework.
- It helps us to be reflective.
- It leads to mutual respect.
- It helps to develop quality relationships between staff/staff/pupils and the community.
- It enables everyone to be equal and have a voice.
- It supports the development of emotional literacy.
